

New Challenges 1.

Topic: In the Country.

1. T.: Read the dialogues. Answer the questions.

- What is Laura doing?
- What do they need from the shop?
- What does the man ask for in the shop?

Mel: Okay, have we got everything?

Emily: I've got the maps. Jake's got the compass and Ryan's got the torches.

Laura: And I've got a bottle of sun cream.

Mel: Good. What are you doing, Laura?

Laura: I am writing some postcards to my family.

Ryan: Have you got any stamps, Laura?

Laura: Er, no but they sell them in the shop.

Jake/Ryan: I can go for you!

Mel: You can both go. We need three bottles of water and two packets of batteries.

.....

Woman: Can I help you?

Man: Yes, I'd like a $5 phone card, please.

Woman: Certainly

Man: And how much are the packets of chewing gum?

Woman: They're 50p.

Man: Can I have two, please?

Woman: Yes, here you are. That's $6, please.

Man: Oh, and have you got any torches?

Woman: Er, they're in the stock room. L think. How many would you like?

Man: Two, please.

Ryan: Jake, look at that guy. He's stealing the batteries.

Questions:

- What do you think happens next? Discuss the answers.
 - a) Ryan and Jake are scared and they say nothing.
 - b) Mel comes into the shop and calls the police.
 - c) Ryan and Jake tell the assistant about the shoplifter.

2. T.: Look at the expressions. Classify them: Shop-assistant (S), Customer (C).

1. Can I help you? - S
2. I'd like this/these.... Please.
3. Certainly.
4. Have you got any...?
5. How many would you like?
6. How much are...?
7. They're...
8. Can I have ... please?
9. Okay, that's ... please.
10. Here you are. Thank you.

3. T.: Work in pairs. Use the expressions and the prices below to act out the shopping dialogue.

Crisps (Big),	1.10$
(Small)	60 p.
Peanuts	75 p.
Biscuits	90 p.
Lemonade	70 p.
Cola	80 p.
Mineral water (Big)	2$
(Small)	1.20 $
Phone card	5.00$
Batteries	4.75$
Magazines.	4.50$